

Want to work in French after Explore?

Following participation in the Explore program, Languages at Work provides Canadian students with meaningful summer job experience and a chance to practice and improve their French through immersion.

LEARN MORE

Annie Lapointe
Young Canada Works coordinator

annie@fjcf.ca
1-800-267-5173

A program offered by

Langues et Travail  Languages at Work

Who

- 18-30 years old (certain institutions accept 16-17 year olds)
- Canadian citizen / eligible to legally work in Canada
- Explore bursary recipient
- Available to work following the Explore program
- Interested in working in French in your host city!

Where

Visit the Where can I work page on our website at languagesatwork.ca

When

3 weeks or 6-8 weeks following the Explore program (varies by city).

Our Contribution

-  30-40 hours of work per week (if you are accepted).
-  Competitive salary: Min. wage of host province plus $1/hr (certain cities incl. additional $1.35 to help pay for accommodation; others provide accommodation, so no salary increases.)
-  Local Project Officers to assist with resume and cover letter translation, interview preparation, and provide support in finding accommodation
-  If you have already purchased a return ticket after Explore, we will reimburse the fees for changing the date of your return trip (with proof of payment).

You Contribute

-  Your own accommodation (in most cities)
-  Meal expenses / groceries (in most cities)
-  Transportation costs (bike, public transit, etc.)
-  Travel costs

Potential Jobs

-  Barista
-  Garden Assistant
-  Bike Mechanic
-  Receptionist
-  Camp Counselor
-  Tour Guide
-  Cashier
-  and more!
-  Daycare Monitor

A program offered by :

A component of :

With the participation of the Government of Canada.

